METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS.

DATE.	Barometer reduced to 32° F. and attached Thermometer. 7	2	9	THERMOMETER. morn ~~7~~	noon ~~2~~	night ~~9~~	Mean.	Max.	Min.	HYGROMETER. 7 D. B.	W. B.	2 D. B.	W. B.	CLOUDS. 7 Kind.	Amt.	2 Kind.	Amt.	9 Kind.	Amt.	WIND. 7 Direc.	Amt.	2 Direc.	Amt.	9 Direc.	Amt.	PRECIPITATION. Snow.	Rain.	REMARKS.
1
2
3				-19	-4	-18
4				-18	0	-15
5				-14	13
6
7
8
9
10				-4	7	-9
11				-22.5	0	-15
12
13				-2
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28				-2
29				-15	10	-10.5
30				-23	10	-3
31

Copied from "Thermometrical Register" of Ebenezer Adams from by Jos Poor March 4 1915

METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE, February 1829 ~~19~~

DATE.	Barometer reduced to 32° F. and attached Thermometer. 7	2	9	THERMOMETER. ~~7~~	~~2~~	~~9~~	Mean.	Max.	Min.	HYGROMETER. 7 D. B.	W. B.	2 D. B.	W. B.	D.	CLOUDS. 7 Amt.	Kind.	2 Amt.	Kind.	9 Amt.	WIND. 7 Direc.	Amt.	2 Direc.	Amt.	9 Direc.	Amt.	PRECIPITATION. Snow.	Rain.	REMARKS.
1				-18	13	4
2				-14
3
4						-4
5				-21	10	10
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

Copied from "Meteorological Register" of Ebenezer Adams Jun.
March 4. 1915 By J M Poor